Get better or get beaten

A large, simple cross is formed by light-colored, rectangular bricks. The cross is centered on the left side of the image. The background is a dark, textured wall made of many smaller, darker bricks. The lighting is dramatic, with the cross being the brightest element.

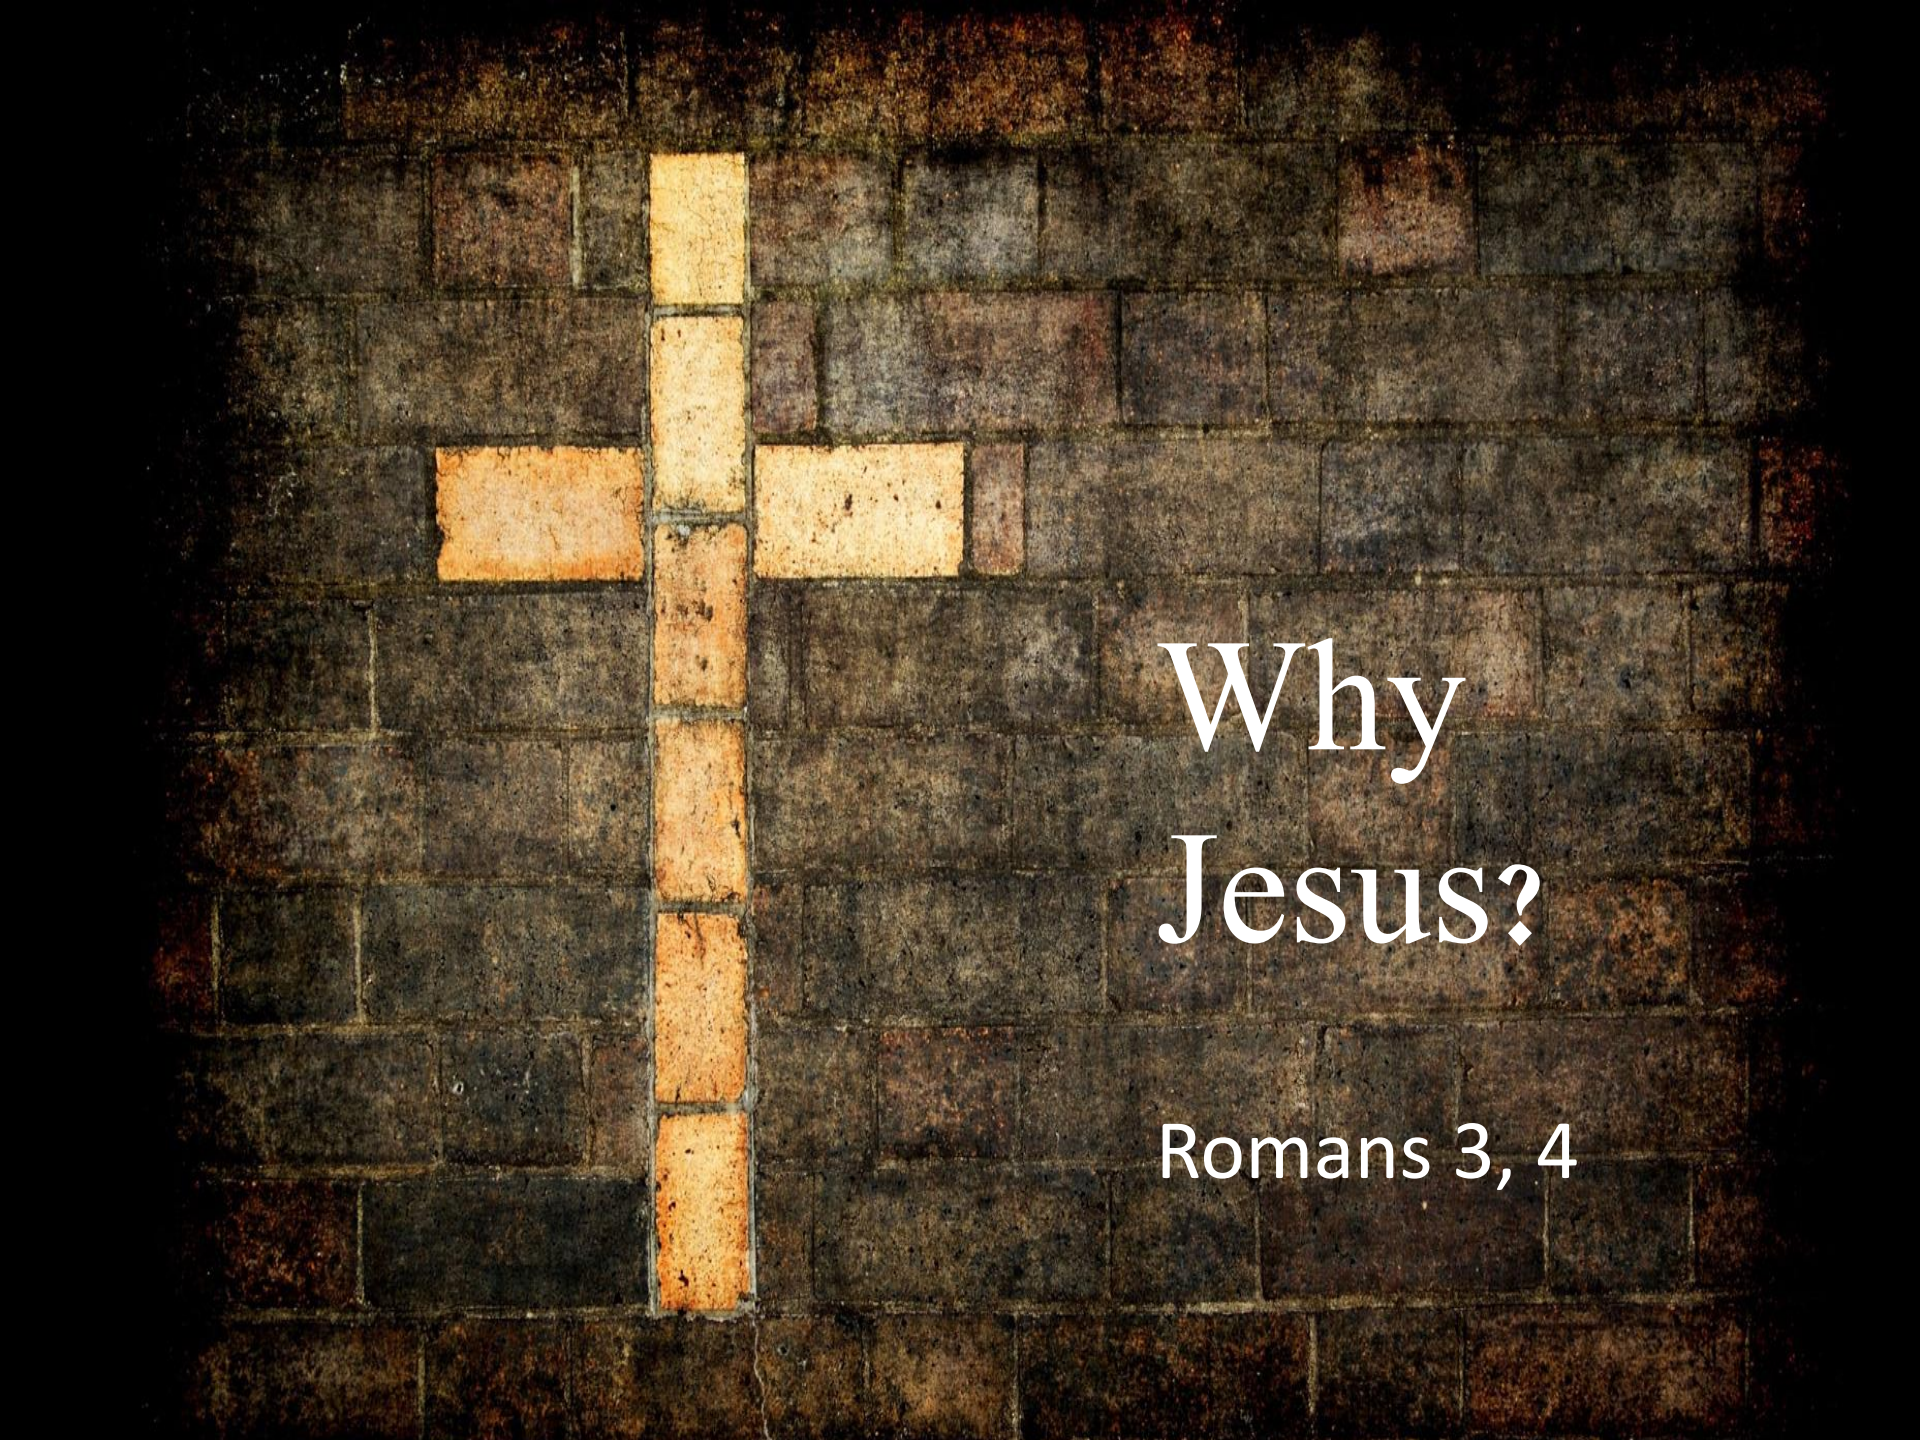

Why Jesus?

Romans 3, 4

- For God, who said, “Let light shine out of darkness,” made his light shine in our hearts to give us the light of the knowledge of God’s glory displayed in the face of Christ.

2 Co 4:6

A large cross is formed by light-colored, rectangular bricks set against a background of dark, weathered bricks. The cross is centered vertically and slightly to the left of the center horizontally. The dark bricks have a mottled, aged appearance with some lighter spots and shadows, giving the wall a textured, three-dimensional look. The lighting is somewhat dramatic, with the cross standing out as a bright element against the dark background.
